

INVITATION LETTER

Dear Colleague(s),

We are cordially inviting you to the 16th ecoMEDIA conference and teacher training course titled „Education under the sign of digitalisation“, which will take place in Várpalota. Our town can be found in the Veszprém-Balaton region in Hungary. Veszprém is the European Capital of Culture of year 2023.

This programme will be organized, and by the local authority of Várpalota and the regional schools from 25th – 29th September 2023 under the umbrella of ecoMEDIA-europe.net ICT-Network, the largest network for educators and researchers in Europe.

The training is going to comprise presentations and workshops for public, as well as for vocational education teachers and school principals. The course addresses teachers, trainers, school principals and educational stakeholders in an endeavour to get all these educational professionals to share teaching practices in the most effective way. This invitation letter can be attached to the application for mobility funds to the National Agencies in Key Activity (KAI) of Erasmus+, the programme of EU for Education and Training.
